

St Nicholas - Complaints Procedure

Section 1 - Purpose

(1) St Nicholas is dedicated to fostering mutual respect, responsiveness, accountability, and transparency in managing complaints and grievances. We view complaints as valuable feedback that can drive critical reflection, quality improvement, and self-assessment, thereby supporting our continuous improvement process. We welcome feedback from employees, parents/carers, and children through various channels.

(2) The Education and Care Services National Regulations require approved providers to ensure their services have policies and procedure in place in relation to complaint handling. This procedure needs to be read in conjunction with the St Nicholas Compliance Policy, the Complaints Resolution Policy and Complaints Resolution Procedure.

Section 2 - Scope

(3) This procedure applies to all St Nicholas employees who educate and care for children in Early Education and OOSH services, the parent/carers and children who attend St Nicholas services.

Section 4 - Procedure/Process

Notifiable Complaints Obligations

Complaint alleging a serious incident has occurred (or is occurring) or the National Law has been contravened

(4) All complaints classified as involving an alleged serious incident has occurred or is occurring or that the National Law has been contravened must be notified to the Regulatory Authority within 24 hours by either the St Nicholas Nominated Supervisor for Early Education or relevant St Nicholas Area Service Manager for all OOSH services.

- a. St Nicholas Head of Early Education, St Nicholas Head of OOSH, St Nicholas Head of Risk and Compliance, St Nicholas Assistant Head of Early Education and St Nicholas Area Service Managers and St Nicholas Nominated Supervisor will receive notification for all complaints classified as involving an alleged serious incident or breach of the National Law.
- b. St Nicholas Assistant Head of Early Education and St Nicholas Area Service Managers will be responsible for initial investigations into the complaint and referring to any relevant parties where required (for example, HR Business Partner, Quality Assurance Lead, Office of Safeguarding Case Worker).
- c. Any complaint that is notifiable to the Office of the Children's Guardian must be reported to the Office of Safeguarding in accordance with the Safeguarding Framework Policy.

Complaint alleging a child is exhibiting harmful sexual behaviours

(5) Any complaint alleging a child is exhibiting harmful sexual behaviours must be notified to the Regulatory Authority within 24 hours by either the St Nicholas Nominated Supervisor in Early Education or relevant St Nicholas Area Service Manager for all OOSH services. In some cases, sexualised behaviour involving children may be required to be reported in accordance with other child protection laws.

(6) St Nicholas has an important role in making informed professional judgements regarding sexualised behaviours. Not all sexual behaviour involving children poses a risk to their safety or the safety of others and may be age appropriate.

(7) Harmful sexual behaviours include behaviours that are outside of the expected range of sexual behaviour for a child's level of development, and may harm the child themselves, other children subjected to this behaviour, or place either child/children at risk of harm. Team members are to follow guidance from the Traffic Lights framework to manage the concern or complaint.

(8) A collaborative approach, involving key stakeholders including parent/carers, key representatives from St Nicholas Operations and Quality Assurance teams, Diocesan consultants and representatives from external services may be required to support all children and families.

Valuing Children's Voices

(9) Children's voices are captured in many ways and can be expressed through both verbal and non-verbal means of communication, commonly demonstrated through play and behavioural changes. Educators' respectful practices and responsiveness to the individual needs of children demonstrates a child focused approach and their dedication to valuing children's voices.

(10) The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child sets out the rights of children and explicitly states that "the child who is capable of forming his or her own views the right to express those views freely in all matters affecting the child" (UNCRC, 1989). St Nicholas will support children in understanding they can openly discuss their concerns in a safe environment where their views are listened to and respected.

(11) Any concerns raised by a child, or on their behalf by their family or another adult, will be taken seriously and managed according to this procedure.

Glossary Terms and Definitions

"Complaint" - An expression of dissatisfaction made to or about the Diocese, the services the Diocese offers, a diocesan worker or the handling of a complaint where a response or resolution is explicitly or implicitly expected or legally required. A complaint is not a request for service, an expression of concern, opinion, or feedback where a response is not explicitly or implicitly expected. A matter that may not be considered a complaint as defined by the policy may be recorded and referred to the appropriate operational leadership for management.

"Complainant" - The person who makes the complaint. The complainant may be the person who suffered the alleged inappropriate conduct or poor service or a person acting on another person's behalf for example, the responsible person for a child (e.g. parent) or vulnerable person (e.g. appointed guardian).

"Complaint management service" - The diocesan service provided by Governance that is dedicated to the resolution of complaints and includes:

- Resolution Officers who have an impartial, facilitative, and supportive role in the resolution of complaints at the Agency, and
- Administrative Review Officers who may be allocated to finalise a complaint by the completion of an Administrative Inquiry.

"Grievance" - A grievance is any issue or concern raised by a worker that involves interpersonal conflicts, disagreements about perceived unfairness, discrimination, or breaches of policies, procedures, and/or conduct standards. Examples include but are not limited to:

- Interpersonal conflict and disagreements between workers.
- Disagreements about how work is allocated or managed.
- Disagreements regarding the application of organisational policies.
- Issues of discrimination, unfairness, or administrative decisions perceived as unreasonable.

"St Nicholas Nominated Supervisor" - The Nominated Supervisor has day-to-day responsibility for the service in accordance with the Education and Care Services National Regulations (2011 SI 653). In relation to an education and care service, means a person who:

- is nominated by the approved provider of the service to be a nominated supervisor of that service; and
- has provided written consent to that nomination Education and Care Services National Regulations (2011 SI 653). In St Nicholas Early Education services, the Nominated Supervisor holds the title of Centre Director.

"St Nicholas Responsible Person" - An individual who is physically present and is responsible for the operation of a centre-based service for an agreed period of time. A responsible person must be present at all times that the approved service operates and can be:

- the approved provider or a person with management or control of the service; • a nominated supervisor of the service; or • a person placed in day-to-day charge of the service in accordance with the Education and Care Services National Regulations (2011 SI 653).

"St Nicholas Area Service Manager" - An employee who oversees the operations and management of a portfolio of St Nicholas services.

"Serious Incident" - Includes the following incidents occurring while or following the child being educated and cared for by a St Nicholas Service:

- The death of a child;
- Serious injury or trauma to a child;
- Serious illness of a child
- Any emergency for which emergency services attended
- Where a child appears to be missing or cannot be accounted for, appears to have been removed or is mistakenly locked in or locked out of the education and care service premises or part of the premises.
