- Interpersonal conflict and disagreements between workers.
- Disagreements about how work is allocated or managed.
- Disagreements regarding the application of organisational policies.
- Issues of discrimination, unfairness, or administrative decisions perceived as unreasonable.

"Misconduct" - Misconduct is improper behaviour in the workplace that is inconsistent with employee obligations or duties. Misconduct may or may not be deliberate. Examples of misconduct may include, but are not limited to:

- Failure to comply with legislation, a policy, procedure, or reasonable directive of the Diocese.
- Failure to comply with professional obligations.
- Acting outside of delegation and/or responsibility of position.
- Disclosing confidentiality inappropriately, or misuse of confidential information.
- Unauthorised absences and/or repeated lateness.
- Dishonest practices.
- Behaviour that a reasonable person would not view as appropriate the workplace, such as swearing at colleagues or clients.
- Matters that impact an employee's ability to perform the inherent requirements of their role such as not holding, or letting lapse the required licences, clearances, registrations or qualifications to perform the role. Medical related matters will typically be managed in accordance with the Fitness for Work Policy and associated procedures. • A pattern of behaviours when taken together amount to misconduct.

"Student Placement" - A student placement refers to a vocational placement that is: • undertaken with an employer for which a person is not entitled to be paid any remuneration; and • undertaken as a requirement of a tertiary education or training course, subject or module; and • delivered by an Educational Institution.

"Volunteer" - A person who willingly gives their time and effort for the common good, without expecting financial gain.

"Youth volunteer" - A person aged 16 - 17 years old volunteering with the Diocese.

"Volunteer Supervisor" - The allocated volunteer, manager or supervisor responsible for overseeing and managing a volunteer placement.

"Youth Volunteer Supervisor" - The allocated volunteer, manager or supervisor who is suitably cleared to oversee a youth volunteer and is responsible for managing a youth volunteer placement.

"Working with Children Check" - The Working with Children Check is a requirement for anyone who works or volunteers in child-related work in NSW. It involves an online registration process with the Office of Children's Guardian and a relevant clearance being issued if deemed appropriate.
